ABOUT THIS HILARIOUS COMEDY SHOW

For the first time, three female clean comics who live in the Bible Belt have teamed up to deliver laughs that the entire family can enjoy. Their humorous take on church life and the everyday has audiences shaking with laughter and thanking the good Lord that they came. The trio's audacious display of girl-power for God is a great addition to any event or can stand alone.

About the Comediennes

Jae Henderson

THE ACTIVATOR

Jae Henderson is the founder of She Saved and the Silly Comedy Show. Jae was introduced to stage comedy after attending veteran comic LaToya Tennille's Women In Comedy Bootcamp. Once Jae heard the laughter and applause during her debut show, she was hooked. Previously, Jae served as a comedic writer on the award-winning Tom Joyner Morning Show.

Jae has brought joy to others on stages in and around the Tri-State area and Atlanta. She often uses her journey from single to engaged to entertain, educate, and empower audiences. A former radio personality, talk show host, college professor, and now an accomplished author and speaker, Jae sees laughter as medicine for the soul and light for dark places.

Mzzz. Kecia
